The Class of '29

GILBERT W. WINTERS.....President
 SAMUEL SCHMEICHEN .....Vice-President
 CLARENCE BEEHLER.....Secretary and Treasurer

IN September of '25 a large group of freshmen found themselves stranded on the Elmhurst College Campus. This group of young men were entering a period of four years work under the guidance of teachers and instructors. They were beginning one of their most memorable experiences of life, four years of study and enterprising cooperation.

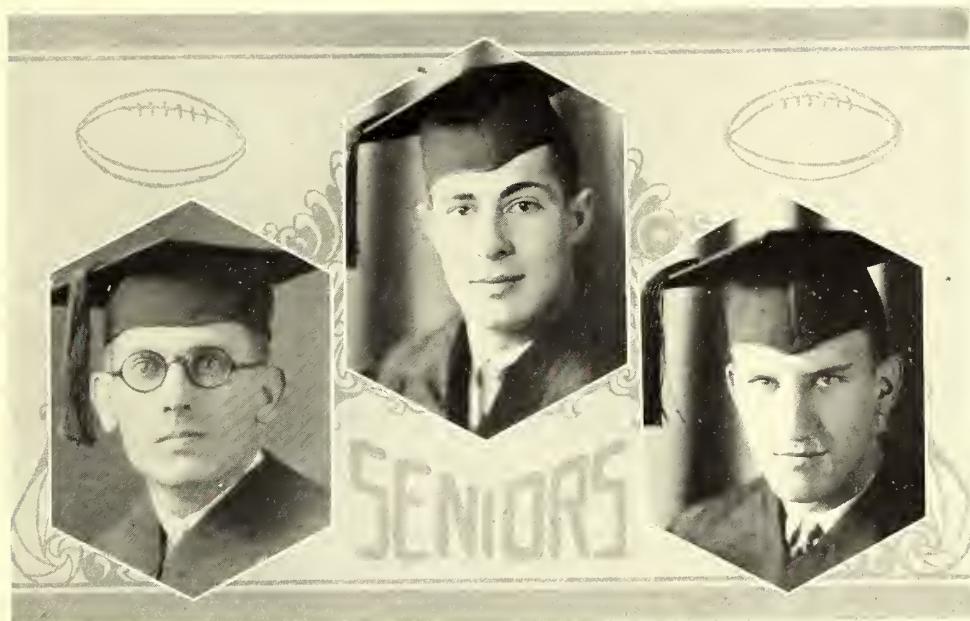

The freshman class numbered eighty-one members which was over the majority of the three upper classes. With the spirit which everyone has when undertaking something new the class of '29 quietly planned a class rush which did not become a reality. It was in the freshman year that the members of the class had to adjust themselves to the new conditions in which they found themselves and of which they gradually became a part. Some, however, could not make the adjustment and dropped out, others could not make the grade on account of circumstances, and others saw the need of finishing earlier.

From the freshman year on through until the senior year they improved little by little. The members soon realized their purpose at college and many had to work extra hard to recover from some grave set backs. The class room was the center of learning. It was there that the class of '29 was introduced to new knowledge and where certain requirements had to be met. Each week the efforts grew more determined and the results more hopeful.

The adjustment to the group soon drew the interest of the members of the class in school activities. The athletic teams were supported by a fair majority, the Glee Club was always well represented, the Y. M. C. A., the Elm Bark and the annual always found willing helpers in the class of '29.

In the dormitory the members of the class of '29 learned to know each other better. Many happy evenings were spent trying to solve some of the student problems or combining efforts preparing for tests. As the members of the class learned to know each other better the social life developed. Going to theaters was a group undertaking, a class Outing in Graue's woods was not neglected and frequent social gatherings were always welcome. Out of these school and class enterprises grew lasting friendships, which will hold the class of '29 together as a unit after they leave their Alma Mater.

A. BLAUFUSS.

HERBERT J. BARTH
A. B.

Hampton, Iowa

The last of the Barths has set a record—a unique yet an appealing one. He held responsible positions in many organizations, and executed them with remarkable diligence.

The substance of a successful college career to this Iowan was to play football and to see that his activities did not interfere with his studies. He is a firm expounder of "academic freedom."

His friends are many, his enemies few, if any. Success in life will be but a fitting climax to his successful college career.

FRED ANDERSON
A. B.

Waterloo, Ill.

"Andy" knew that great men are not born ready-made, and that in the course of their development they do not make themselves heard and seen unnecessarily, but that they devote themselves to diligent study and hard work.

"Andy" was the silent member of our class. His thoughts were bigger than his words, but he projected them with some difficulty. His wise-cracks were full of humor and always brought their smile. He will always be respected by his classmates and will be remembered for his friendliness.

CLARENCE BEEHLER
A. B.

Wakarusa, Ind.

Because of his unbiased opinion and good judgment, Beehler is considered one of the leading men of our class. He is a persistent worker, doing everything to the best of his ability. We know him best as the assistant librarian and an active participant in football, basketball, and tennis. His athletic articles in the Elm Bark and Elmhurst Press are evidences of his literary ability. His versatility is shown by the fact that he is quite at home among his books, in the concert hall, or at the playhouses. His future has unlimited possibilities.

ARNOLD BLAUFUSS

A. B.

Denver, Iowa

One could not be on the campus a day without learning to know Blaufuss. Occasionally, he had lucid intervals. During these times he was a good student, an efficient store manager, and an Elm Bark editor.

But when he wasn't busy you couldn't tell if he was going to talk seriously or rough up your hair. Blaufuss was the "happy-go-lucky" sort, and in this, his strongest characteristic, there was never a let down.

He was an enthusiast of English Literature, a devotee of the novel. Going to the city to see plays and hear concerts was his particular delight. His sincerity and depth of character demanded respect.

MILTON BIERBAUM

A. B.

Freelandville, Ind.

Fineness of manhood is not limited to externalities but consists also of unshaken mentality, human respect, and personal dignity. "Milt" regarded his studies as stepping stones to a greater self, never as a wilderness in which to get lost.

Together with his spirit of independent accomplishment went a spirit of fellowship that made him a leader of our class. He had a vital interest in all the activities of the school, but especially in athletics, from which he got his greatest enjoyment. He also derived a great deal of pleasure from literature.

CARL BURKLE

A. B.

Geneva, Iowa

Carl was the quiet philosopher of the class. In all his quietness there was a depth which few could fathom. A refreshing sense of humor went with his remarkable application to his studies and his music. He was slow to criticize and ready to give praise where deserved.

Carl's willingness to help in school activities and his winsome personality won for him a place in the heart of his classmates. Philosophy was his major and he always stuck to it when others wanted to give it up in despair. His scholastic ability ranked him well up among the brains of the class.

WILMER GRUNWALDT
A. B.

Black Creek, Wis.

In spite of what time has in store, Wilmer's happy disposition and friendly smile always remain the same. In his eye the merry twinkle reveals that he is always ready for fun. His easy, helpful comradeship often drew fellows to his room when they wanted to profit by a pleasant hour.

Wilmer, also, has a wide range of appreciations. Where others see only unshoveled walks he can still admire the grace of an elm furred in snow. His philosophy is that man must live as well as exist. Certainly the future must have great things in store for him.

HILMER GRUNWALDT
A. B.

Black Creek, Wis.

A college graduate is supposed to be a gentleman and a scholar. Hilmer is both, and a musician as well. Beauty, not only in music, but in almost any of its numberless forms, finds response in his nature, and is there reflected in a fineness which is the head-line of character. Underneath his exterior that is always calm and composed, he hides a real depth of feeling and a genuine warmth of friendship. Hilmer has convictions and lives up to them. His ideals are never for display, but for use. Though quiet and unassuming he has the vision and the practical seriousness so necessary to successful effort.

THEODORE HAEFFELE
A. B.

St. Louis, Mo.

"Ted" was the chief syncopator of the senior class and it was a common thing to find him in the music house trying some new hit. Yet, if need be, he could also play the works of some great master and he enjoyed singing in the Glee Club from his Freshman year on. Writing letters to his "weakness" in St. Louis was another hobby.

Among all these activities he found time to finish his college work in three and one-half years. Greek was his pet subject and he aspires to become a Greek professor. Our best wishes go with him.

HARRY C. KOELLING
A. B.
Hoyleton, Ill.

In discussions about the relative merits of the big league players one was apt to run into a tasty argument with Harry, who is an inveterate fan and who knows all the dope. His study of history furnished an excellent field from which to draw irrefutable arguments on any subject.

Harry had "the old class spirit" and took an active part in class activities, whether social or athletic.

Although he had his lighter moments, he displayed at times a serious side to those who knew him best. He had his own ideas about philosophy and psychology. We shall remember him for his wholeheartedness and spontaneous response.

WALDEMAR HILLE
A. B.
Round Knob, Ill.

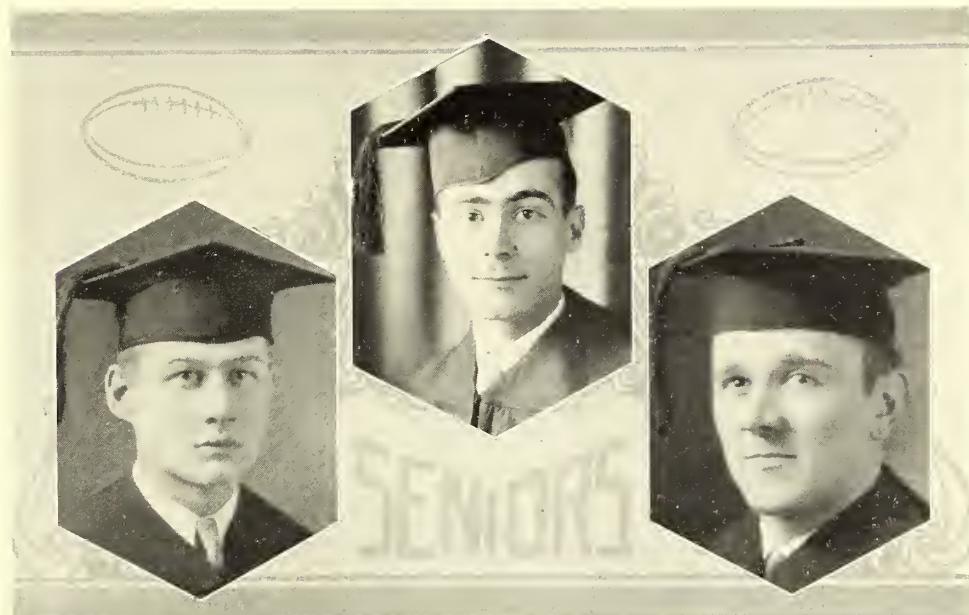

You can't kid "Husky." His witty sarcasm flavored with a lot of good humor soon quiets his aggressors.

In music he is a genius. Besides giving many interesting and delightful piano recitals he has been a faithful accompanist and soloist on the Glee Club for four years. His repertoire includes all the great masters.

He is a scholar and a thinker with a true philosophy of life. His success in different fields is the reward of earnest and persistent effort. We feel certain that in the future we will read Waldemar Hille's name on many concert programs.

FRED A. KRUEGER
A. B.
Mannheim, Ill.

Fritz joined our class in the junior year and became an active member. He was a good entertainer and was always ready to work, which found him taking part in many activities. His willingness to help brought him to the position of Student Union president which he ably executed. His ability on the violin, the piano, and the horn was of value to the band and the social events of the class. He was a good student. Even if his studies were neglected at times, his term reports were always good. Next to his studies he found pleasure in basketball, baseball, football, and friends among girls. "Personality" was his asset.

OTTO E. KUGLER

B. S.

Lenzburg, Ill.

No matter what was to be published, Kugler was sure to have a hand in it. He is among the first to receive a B. S. degree from Elmhurst College. Eventually he will become a doctor.

"Ott's" athletic career was confined to a little baseball and lots of tennis. For several years he was a member of the varsity tennis team.

His ready smile was often a subject of pleasing comment. Life is a serious thing with Otto, but it also has its lighter moments.

MARTIN ERNST
A. B.

Independence, Mo.

"Marty" is one of those who has not nearly tapped all of his resources. Entirely unassuming, he goes about accomplishing one surprising thing after another.

Scholastically, he kept up with the best; his practical achievements were varied and thorough; and socially, he was right there with his friendly smile and pleasant disposition. He had three hobbies: books, radios, and photography. Multiply these interests by a rare sincerity and application and what have you?

LUDWIG KUTZ
A. B.

Rock Island, Ill.

Kutz was noted for his dominating, high-pressed humor. Much of it was original or at least originally adapted from the "Line."

As a student he excelled with Sociology and Biology as his favorite subjects. The time he did not need for his studies, he worked, managing somehow to sandwich in Glee Club, in which he took an interested and active part.

"L. C." was well liked, for his presence drove all loneliness away. We know he will make good.

OTTO NITZ
B. S.

Sigourney, Iowa

"He who is not ready today will be less so tomorrow." Otto's many interests and love for activities kept him a busy chap. He did things wholeheartedly whether in the chemistry room or on the tennis courts. His natural aptitude with the mechanical led him to create and invent. His home-made enlarging machine is a perfect success. Otto enjoyed "bull sessions" and shared many cakes with his friends. A reserved, though radiant, personality full of sincerity.

FREDERICK LUDWIG
A. B.

Milwaukee, Wis.

"Fritzie" was the storehouse of knowledge for his classmates, for when we'd want information we'd go to him for it instead of the encyclopedia. It was his genius to collect, retain, and have at immediate use isolated facts on every conceivable subject.

The week ends Fritz rarely spent on the campus. He visited his friends and relatives, and from each of his excursions he would return with sweets that he generously produced when his friends came to his room.

A happy countenance, a friendly demeanor, a witty repartee, a scholastic record unsurpassed by any one in the class—these are a few of the things by which we remember him.

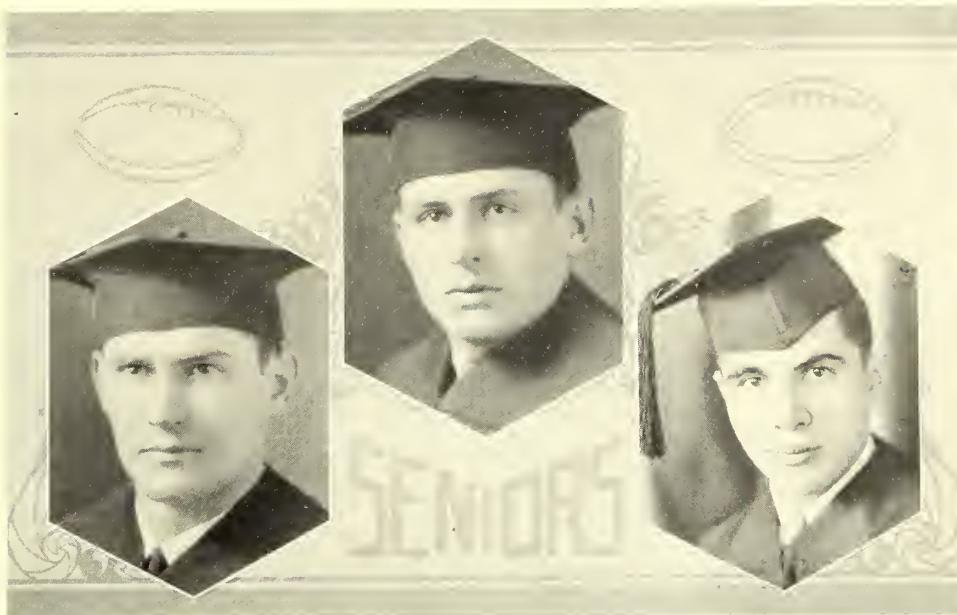

LOUIS A. PIEPER
A. B.

Waterloo, Ill.

"Louieee" is a most practical man. "Things worth doing are worth doing well," is his motto. No wonder his arguments proved so convincing.

It was pleasant, and in many cases amusing, to engage in a conversation with Pieper, for his characteristic wit and humor always left one walk away with a happy heart.

A practical man also has diversions. For Pieper they were the Glee Club, Band, and Quartet. The Glee Club owes most of its successful tours to his noble management.

PAUL PRESS
A. B.

St. Louis, Mo.

Paul was the man of the hour. No task was too large nor too small for him to lend a helping hand. Hesse liked his salesmanship, the girls liked his company, and the fellows liked his indomitable optimism and almost nervous energy.

He was a diligent student, finding his special interest in the racial and social problems of the present day. Unlike the musical interpretation of his initials, his actions were of the fortissimo type.

LESLIE POESCHEL
A. B.

Hermann, Mo.

What a place Leslie's home town must be. In it he found an example for every social, moral, and religious problem that came up for discussion.

His was a spirit that was hard to depress. Strong in his likes and dislikes, he was equally willing to keep his head up against the criticism of others.

He liked languages and the girls liked him, neither of which had anything to do with the other but they both suited Leslie to a "T."

RUDOLF J. PRIEPKE
B. S.

Clarksville, Iowa

"Rudy" is a scholar, a business man, and a musician. We will long remember him, because of his good natured explanations in the Anatomy class when chemical elements were concerned.

"Rudy" was a partner in the multigraph establishment of "Prieple & Winters." He put out some real work, with "Gibby" handling the sales end of the job.

As a musician and a chemist Prieple ranks high. For three successive years he has been a very valuable asset to the Glee Club. Regardless of which field he enters, we are convinced that "Rudy" has a bright future.

O. FRANK STORCH, JR.
A. B.

Hamilton, Ohio

"Doggie" was by nature born a friend of merriment, yet he had serious moments, and in them he accomplished much. Books and athletics went hand in hand with him, and his appearance on the Honor Roll and on Athletic teams speak well of him. Being Captain of last year's baseball team is an achievement that is self-speaking for his ability and popularity as an athlete.

Storch is the type of a student that will settle down to hard work and get things done in good order.

SAMUEL SCHMIECHEN
A. B.
Swiss, Mo.

"Sam" was quite the serious lad—always finding something to do. If he wasn't in athletics he would devote his time to music, or at times even look at a book.

"Sam" has a definite, worth-while goal, which is the ministry; and that he will make good is not questioned. His pleasing personality will be a great aid to him in this field.

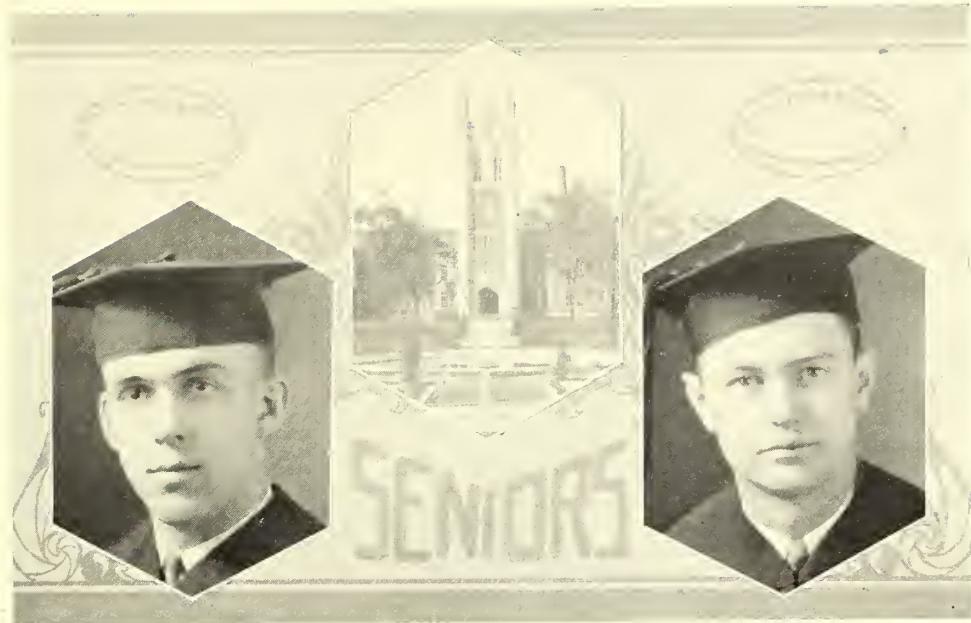

Our friend from Swiss is one of these silent lovers. If you doubt this statement, try to become his friend, gain his confidence, and in his moments of weakness he may reveal much. For "Sam's" love is something vital, real and divine.

GILBERT W. WINTER
B. S.
Hubbard, Iowa

Wide awake, a ready smile, a go-getter—that's "Gibby." Whenever the drab side of anything was presented, Winters could be depended on to counter it with an appropriate and unique witticism.

With him at the helm the seniors couldn't go wrong. A man to be trusted to restore order out of chaos—that's "Winters."

He is one of the first four men of the College to receive a B. S. degree. He is a chemist of no mean ability. Ability, dependability, and initiative are the qualities that mark "Gibby" as a future successful man.

KARL REST
A. B.

Marshalltown, Iowa

From the desolate arid wastes of the Iowa plains, hails "Rest." His first days at Elmhurst were days of trial and struggle. He could not find himself. However, he soon became attracted by the teachings of Bauer and from then on he was a faithful disciple who sat daily at his feet. Today he is our Twentieth Century Plato. But don't get the idea that "Rest" is a grind for he is popular with his classmates, was interested in all the college activities, and even forgot his philosophical loves at times for those of the weaker sex. He shall not be forgotten by those with whom he made contact.

NORMAN ZULAUF
A. B.

Baltimore, Md.

Here we have an original fellow from one of the original thirteen states. "Normie" delighted in doing things differently and pulling off novel stunts. No one will forget his appearance at the "Greeks" in a suit of flaming "evening clothes."

"Norm" took his first year at Johns Hopkins. Since his coming to Elmhurst, he has been a leader on the campus. He was a hard worker, a faithful student, a true friend, and a jolly good sport. His warm cordiality will carry him far in his chosen field.

The Class of 1930

REINHARD SCHROEDEL .....	President
EDWIN HOFFMAN .....	Vice-President
CARL F. KRAENZEL.....	Secretary
FREDERICK J. SAGER.....	Sergeant-at-Arms
ROBERT YOUNG .....	Historian

TO ANY one not a member of the Class of '30 the history of its adventurous past holds little significance and less interest. To us, who have enjoyed its pleasant membership for three years, the dreams which we dreamt and realized, the social accomplishments we attained, and the many unrecorded happenings we participated in, are idolized memories.

True to custom, we began our Freshman year in an orderly manner. Tradition dictated that a president be elected. Edwin Beier accepted the position, and with keen executive ability developed what later proved to be a class that took pride in itself, that was daring in its attempts to be different from former classes, that was successful in carrying out many wishes that still lie hidden in the hearts of present day students. A year passed and the class realized that Ed. deserved a rest, so the responsibility of piloting the organization was wished upon Reinhard Schroedel. "Bub" was successful to such a great extent that a ten-second vote by the class at the beginning of the present school year gave him the "job" again. "Bub" was different from the start, for he abolished the dry, routine reports of the various class officers. (Class dues were ancient history already.) Meetings began with, "There is no old business, so let's start something new." At one special meeting some one suggested that each member contribute a dollar and a half for "general expenses." The idea was adopted and several days later we discovered what the general expenses were. A wonderful investment for "one-fifty!" Lots of crepe paper and some punch! In the minds of the class members the affair will always stand out as the greatest and most pleasant social achievement ever undertaken.

In scholastic and athletic achievements, members of the Junior class ranked with the best of other classes. Honor roll students were always among us. When we graduate we will have the distinction of having had three football captains chosen from our class, a record that no class has ever equaled. Last year's tennis captain, as well as this year's basketball pilot, were from our group.

This year marks the end of our careers at Elmhurst for not a few of us. Next September will find many of us at Eden Seminary and some attending schools elsewhere. Wherever we may be, we will remember Elmhurst not as a plot of earth with buildings planted on it, but as an atmosphere wherein we formed our ideals and ambitions to become a useful part of this interesting world.

A final historical confession to the Senior class may be in order here. The old "Fairies of the Woods" affair committed in Graue's Woods was the work of members of this class who were out for excitement one night and instead found a bag of delicious cookies.

"RED" YOUNG, Historian.

EDWIN BEIER—"Ed"

St. Louis, Mo.

"Sweet is the music of friendship."

Class president '27; Annual Staff '29; German Club '28, Secy. '29; Band '28 '29; Glee Club '28, '29.

Eddie enjoys nothing better than a real argument. Wednesday evenings he and his trombone went on miniature sprees to Northbrook. In addition, he has the makings of a mechanic and radio juggler. A many-sided man!

THEODORE BEIER—"Ted"

St. Louis, Mo.

"Not what we gain, but what we give, measures the worth of the life we live."

Band '28, '29; German Club '28, '29; Glee Club '29.

"Ted" is a good all around sport. He is frank and well liked, and easily makes friends. He is game to try anything once. Work and study keeps him in a pleasant disposition.

HELMUTH BUCHMUELLER—"Buck"

Minonk, Ill.

"Heaven's thunders melt in music."

Pres. Band '28, '29.

"Buck" spent much of his time for the welfare of the band and he also defiled his trumpet with jazz.

CARL BUFF—"Buff"

Union, Ill.

"Little I ask, my wants are few."

Librarian I. R. C. '28; Vice Pres. German Club '28, '29.

College radio dealer. He says that chemistry is his pain in the neck. He nourished several cars (?) back to life while at Elmhurst.

EVERETT CALDEMAYER—"Calde"

Mt. Vernon, Ind.

"The power of thought; the music of the mind."

Elm Bark Staff '27, '28, '29; Elms Staff '28, '29; Masque and Buskin '28; Student Union '28; Oriental Club '28; Band '28, '29; Tennis '28.

Caldemeyer loves to "jazz it up" on his saxophone. He works his way through by putting potatoes in our gravy at the Commons.

RUTHERFORD DELURYEA—"Bus"

Vincennes, Ind.

"His head is bowed; he thinks on men and kings, Yea, when the sick world cries, how can he sleep?"

President Y. M. C. A. '29; Basketball '28, '29; International Rel. Club '29.

Philosophical, discerning,—one who with a busy campus life had time to ponder on life's more serious problems.

WILBUR DICKE—"Dicke"

New Bremen, Ohio

"Nothing great was ever achieved without enthusiasm."

Band '28; I. R. C. '29.

We are sorry that Dickie left us at the end of the first semester. He spent many precious moments tinkering with machinery.

BENNO OTT—"Ott"

Chicago, Ill.

*"For he who is honest is noble
Whatever his fortunes or birth."*

Football '27, '28, '29; "E" Club '28, '29; German Club Vice-Pres. '28, Pres. '29.

Benno would go home week ends to get new inspiration for the coming week. He will be remembered by his classmates as a good natured fellow.

AUGUST GROLLMUS—"August"

St. Louis, Mo.

"Arbeit macht das Leben süß."

Glee Club '27, '28, '29; German Club '28, '29; Student Union '29.

A conscientious thinker and a dependable worker. The college chauffeur and manager of the college transport company.

WILLIAM GRONEWEG—"Bill"

St. Joseph, Mo.

*"Be strong, we are not here to play, to dream, to drift;
We have hard work to do, and loads to lift."*

Glee Club '28, '29; Elm Bark Man. Editor '28, Editor '29; Band '28, '29; Masque and Buskin '28, Pres. '29.

Immaculate in dress; well assuming the dignity of an editor. Though unusually quiet, he has the typical "Missouri laugh."

KURT HEGER—"Heger"

Cleveland, Ohio

"He liveth not for himself, but becometh a part of that which is about him."

Band '28; Baseball '28; Football manager '29; Athletic committee '29.

Heger used to go to bed early (in the morning) and get up rather late.

EDWIN HOFFMAN—"Ed"

Portland, Oregon

"Nor time, nor space, nor deep, nor high can keep my own away from me."

Tennis team '27; captain '28; Basket ball '29; Class Sec. '27, '28, vice pres. '29; Vice pres. Y. M. C. A. '28, '29; Pres. Oriental club '28; Sec. Varsity club '28, '29; Elm Bark Staff '28, '29.

One is not able to see past that quiet exterior the indomitable persistence that lies within.

ELMER JESCHKE—"Priest"

Marissa, Ill.

"Health is wealth."

Elmer had hard luck. The class hopes he will soon regain his health and return to Elmhurst.

LEONARD KLEMME—"Klemme"

Hubbard, Iowa

"Ever friendly, kind and true—one never knows what he can do."
Band '28.

Leonard's goal is the dentist's degree. By grinding the pharmaceutical mortar he earns his "collegiate gold."

ROBERT KLUSMANN—"Bob"

New Salem, N. D.

"Besides doing his share of the quota, 'Bob' talked about North Dakota."

Band '28; Elm Bark '28; Class Treasurer '28.

His frank outdoor hospitality and cheerfulness are some of the things "Bob" brought with him from the region of vast prairies. An interior decorator and radio fan; also bashful.

ALVIN KNICKER—"Knicker"

Arcola, Ill.

"A shy little boy from Illinois."

Band '28, '29; I. R. C. '27, '28; Orchestra '27.

Knicker was the kind of man who does his work without "raving" about it. Knicker is just as modest as he was in his freshman year.

ELMER KOCH—"Sandy"

Holstein, Mo.

*"I rave no more against time or fate, for lo, my own shall come to me."*Glee Club '27, '28; Elm Bark Staff '27, '28; German Club '29; Band '28, '29.
"Sandy" used to make frequent trips to Chicago; we wonder why.

CARL KRAENZEL—"Kraenzel"

Hebron, N. D.

"Success comes only to those who lead a life of endeavor."

Glee Club '27, '28, '29; Elms '29; Masque and Buskin Play '27, '29; Oriental Club '28; I. R. C. '27, '28; Band '28; German Club '28, '29; Elm Bark '27, '28; Conference Committee '28; Y. M. C. A. '27.

The busiest man on the campus. He stands up for his principles regardless of who opposes him. He frequently visited the library.

VICTOR LANGHORST—"Vic"

Sappington, Mo.

"Come my cares, I give you to the winds."

Band '28; German Club '29.

"Vic" could be picked from the group by his laugh. A mile for a "Camel" and six blocks to the "Greeks."

EDWARD MEINDERS—"Ed"

Ackley, Iowa

"There is sunshine in the heart of me."

Masque and Buskin '27, '28.

A poet at heart—not dynamite; not restraining—the "happy medium."

WILLIAM MUNZ—"Bill"

Hudson, Kans.

"The shallows murmur, but the deeps are dumb."

Football '27, '28, '29; German Club '28, '29; Varsity Club '28, '29; Band '28, '29.

The "He Man" from Kansas. A "bear" in math, and a "wizard" in chemistry. A big fellow with a big heart and a helping hand.

ARTHUR NEWELL—"Art"

Wausau, Wis.

"Good nature is the essence of popularity."

Biology Ass't '28, '29; Elms '29.

A lively fellow, who manages to have his "say" in every discussion.

SIEGFRIED RECHT—"Sid"

Cecil, Wis.

"We hope, we aspire, we resolve, we trust."

Glee Club '27, '28 '29; Class Social Comm. '28-9; Band '27, '28; Quartet '27, '28, '29.

The spice of life is honest pleasure, and "Sid" will have his numbered days well seasoned. As an incentive to social activities and "putting things across" he is unexcelled. For all that, life is a serious affair for him.

HERMAN RITTER—"Porky"

St. Joseph, Mo.

"They shall not pass."

Oriental Club Secy. '28, Pres. '29; Masque and Buskin '27, '29, Sec. '28; Band '28, '29; Elm Staff '28, '29; Y. M. C. A. '27, '28; Cabinet member '29; Student Union Executive Comm. '29; Oriental play '29; Religious Life Comm. '29.

"Porky" was tollman at the Commons. A busy fellow who found time for friendly discussions and a multitude of campus activities.

FREDERICK SAGER—"Fritz"

Freelandsville, Ind.

"Man can do no more than his best."

Glee Club '27, '28, '29; Band '28; German Club '28, '29; Class Fin. Sec. '27; Class Serg. Arms '29.

"Fritz" took up choir directing and furnace tending for pleasure—and for pay. He is small in stature only.

CARL SCHRUPP—"Schrupp"

Shepherd, Mont.

*"Let me live in a house by the side of a road,
And be a friend to man."*

Glee Club '27, '29; Class Sec. '25, '26; Y. M. C. A. Sec. '25, Treas. '26.

Unassuming, earnest, congenial,—a frank and sympathetic personality.

REINHARD SCHROEDEL—"Bub"

Pearl City, Ill.

*"An athlete and a mighty one
Who plays the game until it's done."*

Glee Club '27, '28, '29; Football '27, '28, Captain '29; Band '28, '29; Class Vice Pres. '27, President '28, '29; "E" Club '28, '29; German Club '28, '29; Quartet '27, '28.

Bud does things, says little. The junior class is proud of its president. "Bud's" innocent smile covers a multitude of wiles.

PAUL SCHWEIGERT—"Paul"

Hebron, N. D.

"Then give to the world the best you have, and the best will come back to you."

Elm Bark '29; Y. M. C. A. '29.

Paul was a new man this year. We are glad that he chose Elmhurst as his Alma Mater. He stepped right in and made himself at home.

ROBERT TORMOHLLEN—"Bob"

Huntington, Ind.

"Flamma fumo est proxima."

Bob is a jolly fellow, always ready for fun. He showed his mettle in class work and on the gym. floor.

PAUL VOLLE—"Volle"

Edwardsport, Ind.

"I have tested the world and found it good."

Glee Club '27, '29; German Club '29.

After having stayed out of school for a year, Volle decided that Elmhurst was a pretty good place. He came back with new vim.

The House by the Side of the Road

Let me live in a house by the side of the road,
Where the race of men go by—

The men who are good, and the men who are bad;
As good and as bad as I;

I would not sit in the scorner's seat,
Or hurl the cynic's ban—

Let me live in a house by the side of the road
And be a friend to man.

I see from my house by the side of the road,
By the side of the highway of life,

The men who press with the ardor of hope,
The men who faint with strife;

But I turn not away from their smiles nor their tears—
Both parts of an infinite plan—

Let me live in a house by the side of the road
And be a friend to man.

Let me live in my house by the side of the road,
Where the race of men go by—

They are good, they are bad, they are weak, they are strong,
Wise, foolish—so am I.

Then why should I sit in the scorner's seat
Or hurl the cynic's ban?

Let me live in my house by the side of the road,
And be a friend to man.

—Sam Walter Foss.

Class of "31"

ROBERT BALDAUF .....	President
LEONARD KRAMER .....	Vice-President
GLEN MOST .....	Secretary
ARTHUR SCHLUNDT .....	Treasurer
HENRY BRUESEKE .....	Sergeant-at-Arms

IN the fall of 1927, approximately fifty-five fellows entered Elmhurst College to begin their college careers. The members came from as far north as Minnesota, as far east as New York, as far west as Iowa, and two of our members hailed from Texas.

We received our initiation, as is customary, with but the minimum of ill-effects. By this time we had adjusted ourselves to our new surroundings and had begun to cooperate with the rest of the student body.

Several of our men came out for football and gave a good account of themselves. In the Zoo league the championship team was composed of men of "31" whose efforts were directed by the incomparable Schlundt.

In the spring several of the men earned their letters in baseball. We were also well represented in other organizations on the campus.

During our first year the Band was a new organization on the campus. We are proud of the fact that the majority of the members of the Band were of our class. We also had a good representation in the Glee Club.

In the fall of 1928 we returned to resume our work for another year. We found some new faces in our group and some familiar ones were missing. Upon reorganization Elmer Lambrecht was elected to guide our destinies as Sophomores. Various committees were appointed by president Lambrecht to carry out the plans of the class. Among these were the athletic and social committees which have been functioning in commendable manner. Teams in the different sports were organized by the athletic committee whereas the social committee sponsored a social before the Christmas holidays.

But all in life is not fun for we must need also study and we hope that our stay at Elmhurst will be looked upon as a creditable one.

ROBERT BALDAUF—"Bob"

Massillon, Ohio

"To this fellow with hair so red, Foreign languages hold no dread."

Class President '29; Managing Editor Elm Bark '29; Band '28, '29.

To be a professor in foreign languages is Bobbie's ambition. He showed his scholastic ability by "dragging down" A's, and his ambition by the way he handled his position on the Bark staff. With all these ambitions "Bob" is bound to be a success.

CHRISTOPHER BOLAND—"Chris"

Petoskey, Mich.

"Quietness is conducive to deep thought."

He's a real guy. "Chris" is a complacent, unassuming fellow. These characteristics have won him many friends. Although his weakness is the perusal of movie magazines, he is a good student.

EDGAR BOWEN—"Fat"

Villa Park, Ill.

*"Me and my drum
We make things hum!"*

Band '28, '29; Elm Bark '29; "So This Is London"; Assistant Athletic Manager Football '29; Masque & Buskin '29.

"He's a pretty good roommate," says Fritz, "if you forget his line." In spite of his age and size he is still a youngster in habits and ways. He lives a good social life here on the campus and plays his part well. Chemistry is his hobby.

ELMER BROETZMANN—"Pastor"

Wausau, Wis.

*"Why go other men's ways
When your own are just as good?"*

Band '28.

"Herr Pastor" was a studious boy and never interfered with the girls. He was quiet, but ever mindful of his student relationships.

ALFRED BUCHMUELLER—"Al"

Minonk, Ill.

*"Life is a jest, all things show it,
I thought so once, but now I know it."*

Glee Club '28, '29; Masque & Buskin '29; Elms '29; "Take My Advice."

Al was always amiable and easy going. Worry was something foreign to him. Nothing ever hurried him or disturbed his usual self. He believed in the slogan "What we can't do today we'll do tomorrow."

HAROLD BARTH—"Cocky"

Collinsville, Ill.

*"Happy go lucky, free from care,
Ready to do, and ready to dare."*

Elm Bark '29; "Take My Advice" '29; Masque & Buskin '29.

He is known as the fellow with many talents, but fewer ambitions. Although he can be slightly obstinate at times he's a real sport and thinks a lot about his friends, especially those in Buffalo and elsewhere.

RUBEN J. BIERBAUM—"Rube"

Boonville, Ind.

*"He was happy when Northbrook bound
For there the girl of his dreams he found."*

Band '28, '29; Glee Club '29; Y. M. C. A. Cabinet '28, '29; I. R. C. '28; Oriental Club '28.

Hot as a student, hotter as a clarinetist; most intense heat as a lover. Ruben J. was also above the mediocre when it came to "gospeling."

ALBERT BUCK—"Buck"

Waterloo, Ill.

*"Work first, and then pleasure,
For, honor lies in honest toil."*

Band '29; Glee Club '29; Oriental Club '29; Masque & Buskin '29; I. R. C. '29.

Buck is a fellow who is well liked by all on the campus. There is a reason for that—he does the right thing at the right time. He believes very implicitly in "all work and no play makes Jack a dull boy."

LLOYD H. HEGEMAN—"Hegeman"

St. Joseph, Mo.

*"None but the brave deserve the fair—
I awoke one morning and found myself famous."*

Glee Club '28; Band '28, '29; Masque & Buskin '28, '29; I. R. C. '28, '29; Oriental Club '28, '29; Y. M. C. A. '28, '29.

Paging the boy from "St. Joe"—the village around which the world is built. Mischievous? No, not much. If a noise is heard in the dormitory, it implies that Hegeman is around. Anyway, he's a good scout; always willing to lend a helping hand to some one in need.

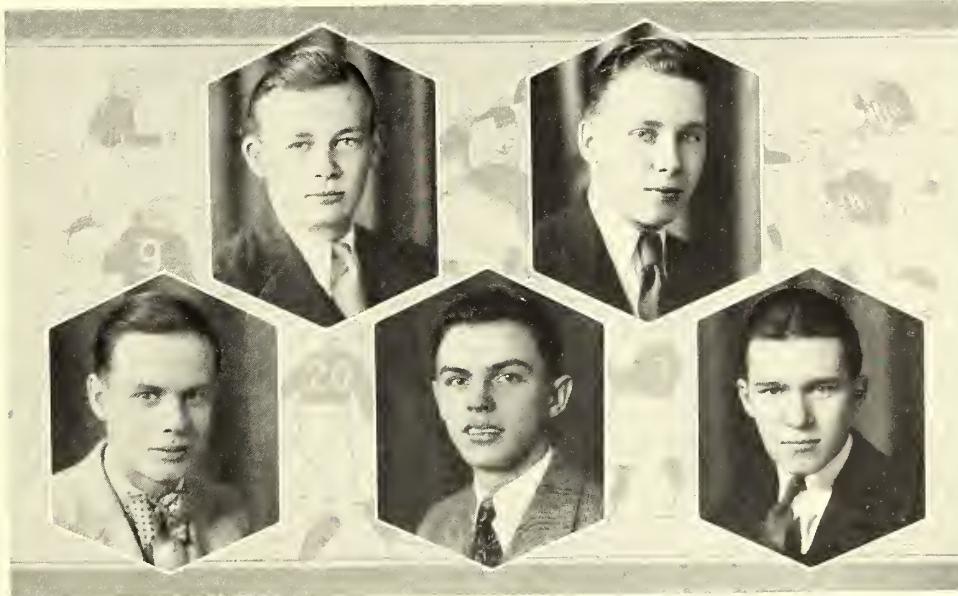

CARL GRATHWOHL—"Grathwohl"

Billingsville, Mo.

"Love conquereth all."

Band '28, '29; Secretary '29; Oriental Club '29; Y. M. C. A. '29; Masque & Buskin '29.

In spite of the fact a fair damsel on Elm Park Ave. keeps Carl's spare moments well occupied, he is one of the ranking students in all of his classes.

CARL HORST—"Horst"

"Wisdom grows in quietness."

Band '28, '29.

Did you ever hear a fellow make an alto horn sound like a sax? That's Horst. He is one of the mainstays of the band. He has also been consistently on the honor roll which proves that he is a student, also. In track he specializes in the weight events.

HORST JESCHKE—"Horses"

"That's right, ain't it, professor?"

Band '28.

We've always wondered why Jeschke asks so many foolish questions in class. He is a hard worker, and is earning his way through college. That speaks well for him since he has always managed to keep his grades up.

Carlyle, Ill.

Marissa, Ill.

RICHARD W. JUNGFER—"Tee Hee"

Philadelphia, Pa.

"Behold the original copy of a big moment."

Masque & Buskin '28, '29; "Poor Nut" '28; "So This Is London" '29; Band '28 '29; Cheer Leader '28, '29.

Here he is, none other than "Tee-Hee" himself, quite the sheik with nothing to worry about. Rather slow in getting the mail but getting it just the same. Did you ever see "Tee-Hee" in the telephone booth stretching a nickel for all it's worth? Quite a treat.

EDWIN L. KIND—"Kind"

Elgin, Ill.

*"And where a lady's in the case,
You know all other things give place."*

Band '28; Y. M. C. A. Cabinet '28, '29.

Kind was kind and congenial as well as humorous. He said nothing, but did much. Let's have more like him, Elgin.

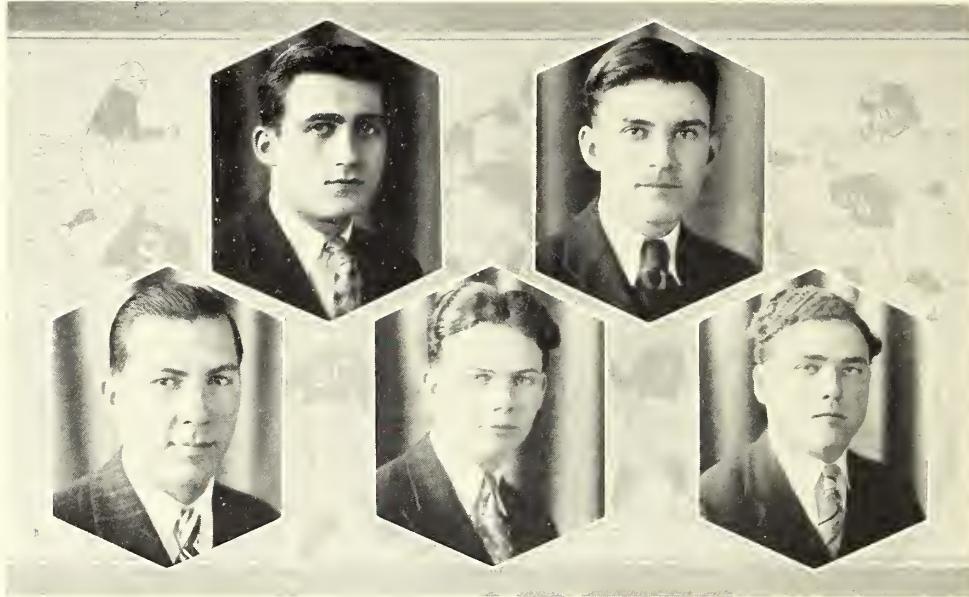

LEONARD J. KRAMER—"Doc"

Sandusky, Ohio

*"Doc is not of football size
But he sure can philosophize."*

Class Vice-President '29; Secretary-Treasurer, I. R. C.; Glee Club '28, '29; Debating Team '28; "The Poor Nut"; "Take My Advice"; Elm Bark Staff '28; Y. M. C. A. '29.

"Doc" is one of these jovial, friendly fellows—always ready to lend a helping hand, especially when it came to strengthening an argument. If your tongue ever ached for exercise all you had to do was to go up to see "Doc," because he can argue "like nobody's business."

ERWIN KRUEGER—"Achtel"

Sheboygan, Wis.

*"A jolly good fellow whose heart is right,
He pulled a joke with all his might."*

Glee Club '29; Quartet '29; German Club '29.

We'll venture to say that many think "Achtel" is going to be a missionary. At least he always looks so serious. His wit, however, is appreciated by all who know him. He has a fine baritone voice which has won him a place on the college quartet. To look at his chest you would think he was a man.

ELMER LAMBRECHT—"Lamebrain"

Chicago, Ill.

"I hugged her and I kissed her in the moonlight, and the moon gave it all away."

Class president '29; Glee Club '28, '29; "The Poor Nut"; "So This Is London"; Football '28; Masque & Buskin '29; Elm Bark Staff '29.

Elmer is a real friend, who pep's up any conversation by his ready wit and good humor. Elmer decided to leave us at the end of the first semester, and we all regretted his absence from the campus. However, we are sure that his cheery smile and willing spirit will aid him in making a real success of whatever he undertakes.

GLENN MOST—"Most"

Elmhurst, Ill.

"Let me sing the songs of the nation, and I care not who makes its law."

Glee Club '28, '29; Class secretary '29; Band '28, '29.

Whenever Prof. Carlson asks about music, "Most" is the one who can answer. He is easy going, friendly, and has a real personality.

MARTIN MUNZ—"Sky Pilot"

Lester Prairie, Minn.

"His marks may drop, the rain may pour, but his good spirits ever soar."

Band '28; Oriental Club '29; German Club '29.

Munz has decided to become a minister. What a treat for the young ladies in his congregation. Besides being a conscientious worker, and always being sure of establishing his "drag," he always liked to have his occasional date with one of the St. Peter's "delights."

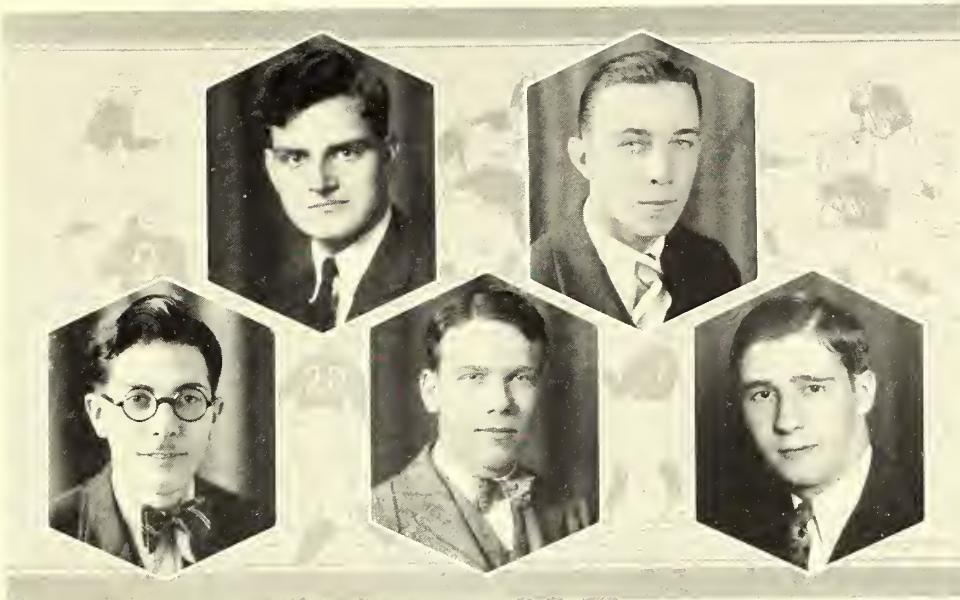

ALFRED A. NIEDERHELMAN—"Al"

Jefferson City, Mo.

"Man's love is of man's life a Thing apart."

Class president '28; Masque & Buskin '28, President '29; "The Goose Hangs High"; "The Poor Nut"; "So This Is London."

Al is from the capital city of the "mule state"—no reflections cast. He has distinguished himself as an orator. Who said he didn't like dates?

ROBERT NIENKAMP—"Bob"

"A disciple of silent 'Cal'."

Band '28, '29; Baseball '28; Elm Bark '29; Varsity '28, '29.

Nienkamp has been a very studious fellow, and will, without a doubt, reach the goal that he has set. Quietness is often a sign of wisdom.

Treloar, Mo.

ERNEST NOLTE—"Ernie"

*"He's very lean and tall
And a whiz at basketball."*

Band '28; Glee Club '29; Basketball '29; Baseball '28; Elm Bark '29; Varsity Club '29.

"Ernie" stands head and shoulders above the heads of every one figuratively and otherwise. He never has to "swallow" anybody's dust playing golf. Fore!

Pekin, Ill.

GUSTAV PAHL—"Gus"

Chicago, Ill.

"Who was tellin' you?"

Band '28, '29; German Club '28, '29; Masque & Buskin '29.

Dashing, gay, and debonair, Gus is the perfect answer to any maiden's prayer.

ADIE PETZOLDT—"Adie"

Jackson, Mo.

*"What without love would I do
Never cares, my lot pursue."*

Band '28, '29.

"Adie" burns his "candle" at both ends; in his room or on the back porch. And then, don't forget he's from the "show-me" state and quite a representative.

OSCAR RUMPF—"Rumpf"

Saxton, Mo.

"What sweet delights a quiet life affords."

Band '28, '29; Student Union Ex. Comm. '29; Football '29; Y. M. C. A. '28, '29.

Although a quiet and unassuming fellow, he does things and does them well. He takes keen delight in all his subjects—especially philosophy.

1928 FILMS

G. MERL SCHIFFMAN—"Schiffman"

Dunkirk, N. Y.

"All mankind loves a lover."—Emerson.

Cheer Leader '28, '29; Band '28; Masque & Buskin '28, '29; Elm Bark '29.

"Who said I was serious?" Merl gets more letters than any man on the campus. But he is the mailman so they don't all belong to him. Many times he has shown marked perseverance when somebody asked, "Did I get any?" His weaknesses are girls, clarinets, and cheer leading.

ARTHUR SCHLUNDT—"Art"

Dover, Ohio

"As fond of dates as an Arab."

Band '28, '29; Tennis '28, '29; Glee Club '29; Class Secretary '28; Class Treasurer '29; Masque & Buskin '29; Y. M. C. A. '29; Varsity Club '29.

Oh boy—but that hair could be loved by all. Elmhurst held attractions, who knows? He was also in love with all sports, including marbles.

FRED SCHUETZE—"Schuetze"

Princeton, Ill.

"Life is but a thought."

Fred has a philosophy of life, which is of his own making. You should ask him what he thinks of this life. Studies do not seem to worry him, for he believes in having a good time while the "shekels" last.

HARRY SCHAIRBAUM—"Sherry"

Bellevue, Ky.

"A man's greatest asset is his business sense."

Y. M. C. A. Cabinet '28, '29; Baseball '28; Elms Staff Business Manager '29.

If you see a short fellow who looks as if he is busy all the time, you'll know it is Harry. Each day he becomes sweeter, and sweeter. That is what work in a candy store will do for one.

WYNYARD SVEINSSON—"Wyny"

Elmhurst, Ill.

"Thoughtless words mean nothing to me.

Rather silent choose I to be."

"Wyny" was one of the lucky boys who lived in town, and went home to eat. Chemistry was a pleasure for "Wyny," not a study.

WILLIAM BRANDON—"Dub"
"Who's got a cigarette?"

Football '28, '29.

We all know that Dub loved his Alma Mater, but we also know that he saved some of that virtue for a certain girl in Elmhurst. Even in the busiest times "Marg" was not neglected. In other words, Bill believed in a diversified education.

Indianapolis, Ind.

EDWIN KALLMEYER—"Chick"
"Last year he roomed with Hank
Now he rooms alone,
To forget Hank's pranks."

Class Historian '28.

"Chick" is a good friend and fellow after you get to know him. His room is a hangout for sojourners who make pilgrimages to Mecca, but as yet he isn't a Mohammedan priest.

Herman, Mo.

LEONARD TODD—"Herr Todd"

Pinckneyville, Ill.

"I love everything that is old—old friends, old times, old manners, old books, old wine."

Football '28; Band '28.

Todd is an earnest, industrious worker. One of his chief characteristics is his friendliness. He is one of those lads who says little, but does much. His time is well spent between his studies, and the college engine house. He loved to smoke his pipe as a pastime.

WALTER WILKING—"Spats"

Grant Park, Ill.

"Greater men than I might have lived, but I doubt it."

Band '28.

Studies never seemed to worry "Spats." But oh! those York girls never could leave the boy alone. Although somewhat loud by nature, he was sincere under it all.

WERNER A. WILKING—"Wilking"

Grant Park, Ill.

"Rah, Rah, for Wisconsin."

Band '28; Elm Bark '29; "Poor Nut" '28.

A good student and a hard worker. Although he spent much of his time working at the National Tea, he still attained a place regularly on the honor roll. Werner was always a dependable and honest fellow, not only in his school work, but in his dealings with his fellow students.

CARL FRIEDRICHSEN .....	Treasurer
EDWARD ROBERTS .....	Sergeant-at-Arms

IN September, 1928, forty frivolous freshmen made their debut in Elmhurst and trod for the first time on the cordial college campus. Overawed at first by the stately seniors, jocular juniors and sophisticated sophomores, they struggled along timidly and awkwardly.

This lasted but a few weeks. For soon, they began to discard their natural feeling of inferiority and took their places in the rank of the great advancing machine of educational progress.

Freshmen they remained in rank only, but in accomplishments they had quickly learned to give of their best to their school. Their Alma Mater was soon foremost in their minds and, to uphold her name they devoured page after page and absorbed word after word so that, when the first period was over, they boasted of the highest averages in the school.

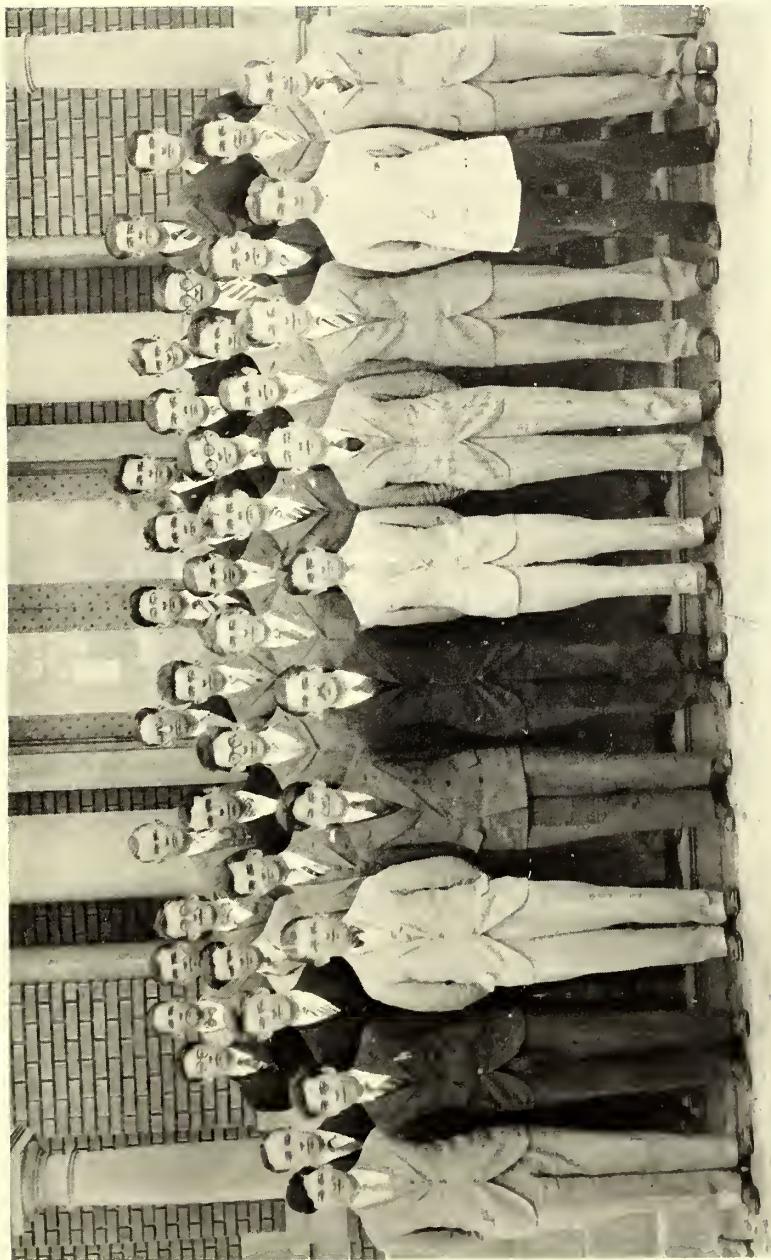

Not only did these humble new-comers prove their ability and quality in the academic routine but also in other fields. Their part in sports was not to be despised in the least. Never before in the history of Elmhurst have the freshmen received the majority of football honors. They played basketball brilliantly, sang sweet songs in glee club, played peppy pieces in the band and participated in every activity.

Now as the year draws to a close, we of the freshman class pause to look back over our first year at Elmhurst. In doing so, we find that, despite the work and occasional struggles, we have completed one of the happiest and most successful years of our lives. For this we wish to thank very heartily the fellow students whose fellowship we enjoyed and the faculty members who were more to us than mere pedagogues. They were our companions and guides on the long quest for knowledge and intelligence.

Elmhurst, we, the freshmen of 1929 salute thee and wish for a successful and immediate realization of the many noble dreams of the worthy men who have made thee what thou art.

The Student Union

FRED KRUEGER .....	President
ARMIN SUEDMEYER.....	Vice-President
EDWIN HOFFMAN .....	Secretary
GILBERT WINTERS .....	Treasurer

AS it is truly the purpose of our Student Union to unite the students of Elmhurst College in common interests, to promote common enterprises of its members and their school, and to serve as a medium for expression, opinion and action; so it has tried again this year to strengthen the belief of all students in the possibilities of a Greater Elmhurst.

It has tried to take the daily happenings of the campus and transform these daily services of a few, into rare opportunities that have been of help to other fellow students. In its various branches it has ever attempted to be more useful; and to make all of the fellows on the campus, "brothers under the skin."

It improved initiation conditions and common manners, efficiently backed the Homecoming and the various social activities with outside groups, supported heartily the Elms and the Elm Bark; moreover it aided one hundred percent strong in the sodding of our own new athletic field, and in short, curtailed the ideas of their being Illinois-Elmhurst or Missouri-Elmhurst men on the campus, but afforded all various opportunities to be loyal to Elmhurst without using any qualifying adjectives.

Few "parlor patriots" still exist, and the Student Union, in its desire to do more good, tried to enable all students to become better and more reliable workmen of Elmhurst, helping them to serve their fellowmen with zest and fidelity, so as to make our college a better place to live and have our being in.

Thus has the Student Union functioned for the fifth consecutive year; it has created new attitudes, established more uplifting precedents, promoted more worthy enterprises and truly endeavored to strengthen the ties that bind both Faculty and Students in their promulgation of a Bigger and Better Elmhurst.

The Young Men's Christian Association

R. DELURYEA .....	President
ED. HOFFMAN .....	Vice-President
H. J. BARTH.....	Secretary
G. W. WINTERS.....	Treasurer

THE YOUNG MEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION, after being entirely reorganized, has been more successful in accomplishing its work during the past year than ever before. This is due to the fact that the group as a whole has been more interested in the work of the "Y" and also to the faithful work of the Cabinet.

The members pledge themselves upon becoming members to abide by the platform of clean speech, clean sport, clean scholarship and clean living. The members' duty is not only to respect the four planks of the "Y" platform but also to co-operate in whatever manner he may be able in the creation, maintenance and extension throughout the College and community of high standards of Christian character.

Last fall a very successful student conference was held on our campus.

To meet the social needs of our campus, the "Y" furnished a room in the basement of Old Main for recreation purposes. The "Y" also sends delegates to attend important intercollegiate conferences and conventions in different parts of the country.

In every major sport the "Y" awards an honorary medal annually to the best and cleanest player.

By developing a close personal fellowship and a frankness of expression among the students, the "Y" creates an atmosphere of Christian wholesomeness in the dormitories, on the campus and throughout the College.

Masque and Buskin

ALFRED A. NIEDERHELMAN .....	President
CARL KRAENZEL .....	Secretary
ARTHUR SCHLUNDT .....	Treasurer

SINCE the Masque and Buskin came into being in 1925 it has had charge of practically all dramatic activities of the college. The club has aimed to foster dramatic art in any way that it may. It presents one major play a year and seeks to put on a series of minor ones, in order that men interested in dramatics may gain experience. Current plays are reviewed and discussed so that men may become acquainted with the best productions of the season. The club also helps to meet the social needs of the members through social hours in connection with regular meetings, and through parties and other functions.

The initial presentation of the Masque and Buskin was "Three Wise Fools." This play was put on at the York theatre in 1925, and met with enthusiastic success. The following year "You and I" was presented before an Elmhurst audience, and again before a crowded house in St. Louis. The 1927 production, "The Goose Hangs High," was played in Elmhurst and also in Cincinnati. In 1928 the organization was first privileged to present its play from its own stage, and "So This Is London" was staged in the new gymnasium on November 22 and 23.

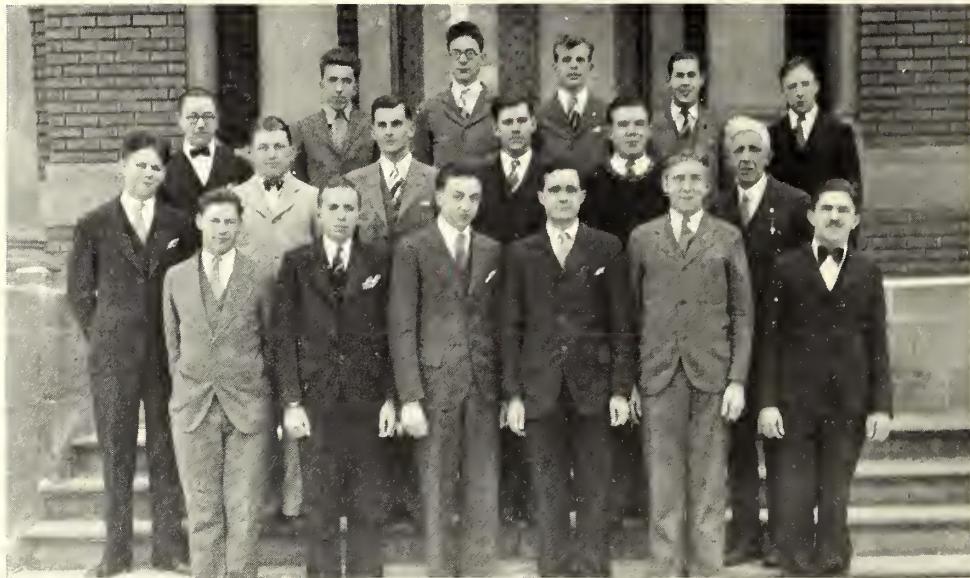

It has always been the ideal of the club to present a superior production to its audience. To this end the best available coaching is procured, and the play and cast carefully selected. The favor with which these plays have always been received has indicated clearly the wisdom of such a policy. "So This Is London" is a delightful comedy of international misunderstanding. Of course the self confident American youth wins his British sweetheart in spite of the prejudice each set of parents has against the native land of the other. Incidentally the audience enjoyed plenty of good hearty laughs, and at the same time felt that touch of something sincere and wholesome underneath the lightness and humor. The play was splendidly interpreted, well acted, and carefully staged.

The Masque and Buskin is this year making a new experiment in presenting two major plays. The comedy "Take My Advice" is being prepared for presentation in April. The cast is being selected as carefully, and preparations are being carried out as extensively as they were for the fall play, and the organization is looking forward to a still greater success. The work is under the direction of Miss Gilbert, of the Dramatic Arts department.

The Oriental Club

HERMAN RITTER ..... President

LONNIE MATZENBACHER ..... Secretary

HENRY GUENTHER ..... Treasurer

THE ORIENTAL CLUB is an organization which has grown from the Mission Study Class, this group has held its place on the Campus for many years. The Oriental Club is sponsored by the Y. M. C. A. as one of its activities. It was organized in the fall of 1927, since that time the club has enlarged its scope to become better acquainted with the Orient, its religious life, ideas, and customs, so that they might be better understood among the college students of today.

One night every two weeks is set aside for an hour of discussion. The meetings are conducted in a formal manner. At each meeting a different member has the privilege of leading the discussion group, this gives opportunity of self-expression which will create leaders.

This year the club gave a play entitled, "The Rev. Mr. Rookie arrives in India," in the Parish Hall of St. Peter's Church. We have also studied, "The Christ of the Andean Road." In this way we get a general conception of the Orient.

The club is yet very small but is growing rapidly due to the interest taken by the students of the college, this interest shows a great future for the organization.

The Elm Bark

WILLIAM C. GRONEWEG.....Editor

ROBERT J. BALDAUF.....Managing Editor

EVERETT CALDEMAYER.....Business Manager

ROBERT KLUSSMAN.....Circulation Manager

THE ELM BARK is the official weekly newspaper of Elmhurst College. The publication of the paper is entirely in the hands of a staff of students elected by popular vote of the student body.

The chief concern of the Elm Bark Staff is to print a paper truly "Devoted to the Interests of Elmhurst College." The Bark contains a record of the main functions of all the various clubs on the campus, write-ups and announcements of all sports, and a Student Forum Column in which any student may set forth his personal opinion on any subject. There is also a joke column, and a column of Library Notes besides the regular editorial column.

The financial part of the Elm Bark is handled by the business staff which has done much this current year to put the finances on a much sounder basis than before. The circulation has increased especially among those outside of the college campus.

The Elm Bark Staff of 1928-29 by means of various changes and innovations has made a better and more interesting Elm Bark not only for the students on the campus but also for those on the outside who may have an interest in the happenings on the campus.

The 1929 Elms Staff

THIS Elms represents the eleventh attempt of students of Elmhurst College to publish an annual. A great obstacle was soon encountered in the form of a deficit from last year's annual, which made the task of publication of this annual a little dubious. If the task was to be undertaken, the staff realized that they must not only face the difficulty of making this annual a literary and financial success but they must also face the deficit of last year.

With an eager and grim determination to make the publication of an annual a success this year, the staff began their work during the early part of the second semester. Special attempts were made to reduce the cost of publication. More work was done by the staff this year than was formerly done. Much expensive work, such as the art work was done by the staff instead of placing it in the hands of a paid artist.

Due to the exceptional athletic success of Elmhurst College this year, the staff decided that it would be fitting to carry out an athletic theme, which they have attempted to do. It will be noticed that this is the second time that a staff has attempted to carry out a coherent theme.

The Staff feel that their efforts are well repaid for they are confident that with the co-operation of the student body the 1929 Elms will be a financial as well as an artistic success.

ATHLETICS

College Athletics—1928-1929

THE success that athletics have met with during the current year has been nothing short of miraculous. The Elmhurst teams have set up a mark which many other colleges can well envy. There are three reasons why this wonderful athletic record has been attained, namely—the new Coach, the new gridiron, and the new gymnasium.

Coach McFarland, during his first year here, has produced two championship teams. Athletics at Elmhurst have taken a new stand. The football team was made up mostly of green material. Coach McFarland showed his true caliber by molding these men into the strongest football team Elmhurst College has ever known. The Elmhurst gridders played the best college teams in northern Illinois, and lost only one game during the season. They also defeated teams that rank among the first in the "Little 19." The outlook for the 1929 football season is very encouraging as almost every man on the "28" team will be back next year.

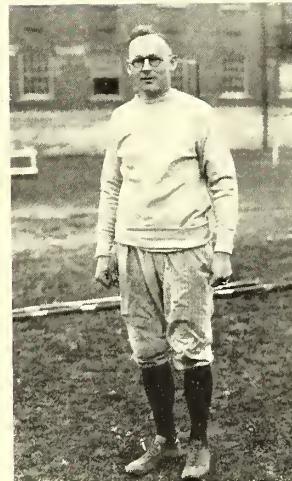

In reviewing the sports of this school year, we cannot overlook the championship basketball team. The fighting spirit and smooth team-work which the Elmhurst cagers displayed deserves mention. They played the best teams in the "Little 19" and won 15 out of the scheduled 17 games. This record alone is enough to show that the team was extraordinary. The Blue and White quintet also had the honor and distinction of being asked to compete in the National A. A. U. Basketball Tournament which was held at Kansas City. The players decided that the trip would keep them away from their classes too long and declined the offer. The Elmhurst quintet scored a total of 510 points against 408 for their opponents. This gives the Pirates an average of 30 points for each game played. The basketball team had such a successful season that we can look for big things next year, as the entire team will be back.

From all early indications the 1929 track team should have a successful season. Up to date the trackmen have not competed in any meets. A large squad has turned out for practice and there are numerous candidates for each event.

CAPT. R. CURTIS

Curtis, without doubt, was the most flashy running guard seen in action on the local floor during the past record season. The success of the team was in a large measure due to his "brainy" playing.

F. C. MCFARLAND
Head Coach

With the coming of McFarland to Elmhurst in the fall of 1928, athletics took a new turn. In the short period of one year "Mac" has already turned out a winning basketball and football team.

CAPT. C. BEEHLER

Beehler's consistent playing won him the captaincy of the tennis team. Led by him the team should again have "easy going" with their current schedule.

CAPT. R. SCHROEDEL

Schroedel, who plays both tackle and center equally well, is known as the hardest and cleanest player on the football team. He led the 1928 team in the most successful season ever experienced at Elmhurst.

CAPT. F. COOKSON

Frank is the outstanding man and point getter of the 1929 track team. His specialty is the pole vault and high jump.

Elmhurst vs. Morton

THE Elmhurst football team opened the season by holding Morton College to a score of 6-6. The game was played on York High's gridiron. Elmhurst started the game by kicking off. During the first quarter both teams tried a series of line plays but with little result.

The Pirates were the first to score in the second quarter, when Brandon put the ball over on a wide end run. Elmhurst failed to kick goal. Morton also scored in the same period by the use of two well executed passes. They also failed to make their point after touchdown.

The second half of the game was hard fought with neither team scoring. The Elmhurst team made a good showing in spite of the fact that it was their first game of the season.

Elmhurst vs. Wheaton

THE Elmhurst Pirates initiated their new gridiron by gaining a decisive victory over Wheaton. Coach McFarland's boys surely did make homecoming day one that will long be remembered by the students and alumni of Elmhurst.

The first quarter of the game was nothing more than a kicking duel, between the two teams. Elmhurst started the second quarter with a bang and from that time on had the Wheaton team on the defensive. The Pirates made the first touchdown in the third quarter when F. Cookson put the ball over. In the same period Curtis gave the crowd a thrill when he intercepted a Wheaton pass and ran 35 yards for a touchdown. During the last quarter Kerber scored when he put the ball over on a line plunge. He also kicked goal for the extra point.

One of the features of the game was the hard tackling of Coach Mcfarland's boys. Erwin and Roberts were continuously downing the Wheaton ball carriers behind the line of scrimmage, this was one of the reasons why the Wheaton team failed to get started. Cookson, Kerber and Curtis scored the points for the Pirates.

Elmhurst vs. American College of Physical Education

THE Elmhurst Pirates won their second game of the season by defeating the American College of Physical Education at Lincoln Park, Chicago, with a 19-0 score. The blue and white warriors did not seem to have the punch that they displayed against Wheaton.

The first half of the game was played on equal terms, neither team making any big gains, although Elmhurst had two chances to score, they did not seem to have the drive to put the ball over. At the beginning of the second half the Pirates seemed to have found themselves and soon started a drive down the field which ended in a touchdown. Frank Cookson was the leader of this attack and made most of the gains.

The Pirates did not score again until the last quarter, when after a series of fierce line plunges by Kerber, F. Cookson again carried the ball over from the 5 yard line. During the last few minutes of play A. Cookson received a beautiful pass from Curtis and ran 40 yards for another 6 points.

Elmhurst vs. Aurora

WE need only to look at the score to see how superior our team was to that of Aurora. Although the Pirates outweighed Aurora they were not by any means playing a team that lacked fight.

The Elmhurst backfield ran the ends, plunged the line, and completed passes almost at will. Curtis made the first 6 points for the Pirates early in the first quarter when he hit the line for 15 yards. F. Cookson soon netted another touchdown when he crossed the goal line after a 30 yard sprint. Kerber carried the ball to the 5 yard line on an intercepted pass, and Fritz Krueger put the pigskin over on an off tackle play. Fritz scored again in the second quarter when Curtis threw him a long pass. Kerber kicked goal for another point.

The Aurora team showed much fight in the third quarter but were hopelessly outclassed. Curtis intercepted a pass and ran 60 yards to score, a little later his team-mate Kerber broke through the entire Aurora team and raced 60 yards for another touchdown.

During the last quarter Aurora punted to Elmhurst and Kerber carried the ball back 35 yards for a touchdown. Neeley made the final score of the game when he received a pass from Curtis on the try for the point after touchdown. The entire Elmhurst team played a great game of football and every player was a star.

Elmhurst vs. Mt. Morris

THE Elmhurst Pirates met their only defeat of the season when they were subdued by the strong Mt. Morris team. Although the Pirates showed plenty of fight throughout the game, they failed to stop the flashy Mt. Morris quarterback.

The first quarter was played on equal terms, neither team threatening to score. Both of the teams played a conservative game and were waiting for a break.

The second quarter was fast and furious. It was in this period of the game that the Elmhurst line showed its true worth, at one time they held the strong Mt. Morris team for downs on their own two yard line. Erwin punted beautifully and the half ended with the ball in mid-field.

On the second play of the third quarter, Greve, the Mt. Morris quarterback, ran 60 yards for a touchdown, and then kicked goal. Mt. Morris soon made another touchdown when they blocked an Elmhurst punt.

In the last quarter, a pass from Curtis to F. Cookson, netted Elmhurst their only touchdown of the game. In the last few minutes of play Mt. Morris again scored a touchdown by a long end run.

Elmhurst vs. Crane

THE game between Elmhurst and Crane which ended in a scoreless tie, was played on a field that was covered with mud and water. Due to this condition of the field, the footing was slippery, and the fleet Elmhurst backs failed to break loose and score.

If we look at the statistics we can see that Elmhurst outplayed their heavy opponents in every department of the game. The Elmhurst line on numerous occasions broke through the Crane offense and tackled the man carrying the ball before he could reach the line of scrimmage.

Elmhurst threatened the Crane goal in every quarter but the second, and gained 239 yards to Crane's 87. Roberts, Erwin, and Munz played exceedingly good football, both on the offensive and the defensive. The Elmhurst goal was never threatened at any time during the entire game. Penalties also played an important part in this game; Curtis carried the ball over for a touchdown but the score was not counted, as the Elmhurst team was penalized, and lost possession of the ball. The game from beginning to end belonged to Elmhurst, but the wet field and slippery ball prevented scoring.

Elmhurst vs. Milton

THE game between Elmhurst and Milton was played on our new gridiron. The day was very miserable for a football game. Rain, sleet, and mud were some of the handicaps both teams had to face.

The game started with a bang, both teams trying to score before the mud and weather could dampen their fighting spirit. Displaying their usual pep; the Blue and White Warriors soon started a drive down the field, which resulted in the only touchdown of the game. Captain Bob Schroedel played a wonderful game at center. No matter how slippery the ball, he always managed to make accurate passes to the backfield.

The second and third quarters were very hard fought, both teams putting their very best into the game. Considering the condition of the field, both teams handled the ball very well, and fumbles were few and far between. The Pirates had the edge on Milton in the third quarter, and at one time in that period they were within 5 yards of the goal.

At the start of the last quarter Milton threw all caution to the winds and started sending over a barrage of passes hoping that they could score in this way. The large crowd which braved the weather was amply repaid in thrills as some of these passes looked good for a touchdown. The Pirates well deserved to win this game, because of the fighting spirit which they showed.

Elmhurst vs. Lisle

THE Elmhurst football team finished a very successful season by giving Lisle a good trouncing. The Pirates outplayed their opponents throughout the entire game. The gridiron was a sea of mud, and after the first few plays, the players were hard to distinguish.

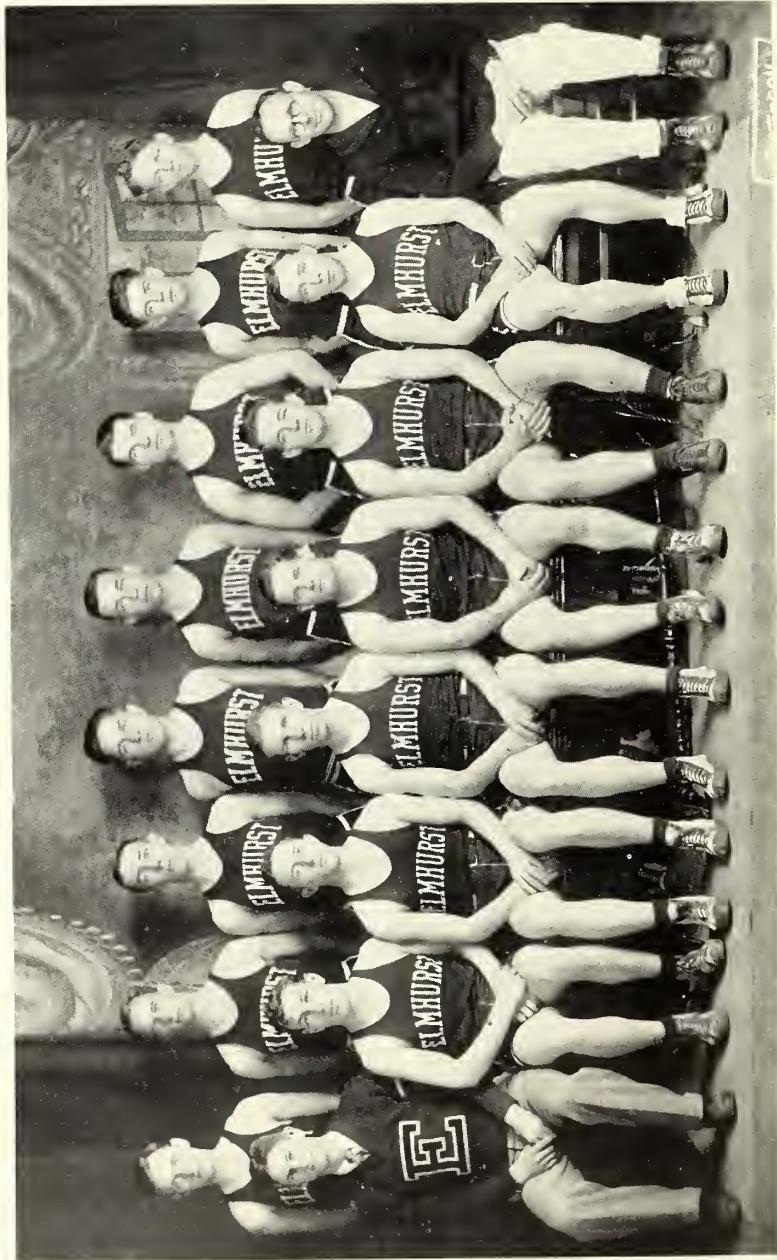

The Blue and White warriors did not lose any time in scoring. They plunged through the Lisle line again and again, and soon put the ball over for 6 points. Soon after the start of the second quarter Krueger threw a pass to Curtis, who ran for a touchdown.

After the start of the second half Elmhurst blocked a Lisle punt and recovered the ball on Lisle's 10 yard line. After two attempts, Curtis carried the ball over for the second time. Kerber made the extra point on a fake pass.

During the last few minutes of play in the fourth quarter Curtis again proved himself the hero of the game by making another touchdown on a line plunge. The game soon ended with the ball again in Lisle's territory.

Elmhurst vs. Lisle

1ST GAME

THE Elmhurst Pirates opened the season by giving Lisle a good trimming. The game began with a bang, and during the first ten minutes of play the Pirates displayed a brand of basketball that was good to see. Their pass work was excellent, and their shooting good. The half ended with the score 23-15, favor Elmhurst. During the second half the Pirates showed a defense that Lisle could not penetrate. Krueger played a very good game and netted most of the points. The game ended with a score of 44-18 with the Pirates on the long end of it.

Elmhurst vs. Mt. Morris

1ST GAME

IN a hotly contested game, the Elmhurst Pirates beat Mt. Morris by a score of 28-24. We need only to look at the score to see that the game was fast and furious. From the first tip-off until the final whistle both teams were using all of the strategy they knew. The score was 20 all with two minutes left to play. The Pirates showed their true worth by outfighting their opponents in these last few minutes. DeLuryea and Curtis put the game on the shelf when each made a goal. In this game the Blue and White cagers showed plenty of team work and the usual pep which is so characteristic of an Elmhurst team.

Elmhurst vs. Milton

1ST GAME

PLAYING a brilliant game of basketball, the Elmhurst Pirates defeated the powerful Milton, Wisconsin, team by a score of 30-24. Both teams played a very fast, and at times rough game. The Pirates showed a great deal of improvement since their game with Aurora. Hoffman was high scorer of the evening with a total of ten points. Curtis and Roberts both played a fine game, especially on the defensive. This was the third straight win for the Pirates and was the last game to be played before the Christmas vacation started.

Elmhurst vs. Aurora

1ST GAME

THE Elmhurst quintet won their first game away from home by a 33-29 score against Aurora College. The game was hard fought from beginning to end. Every man on the Elmhurst team played good, clean basketball, as did the Aurora team. The center on the Aurora team caused the Pirates plenty of trouble with his ability to make long shots. Aurora was leading until the last five minutes of play when the Pirates put in three field goals which cinched the game. The game was very exciting throughout and neither team was certain of victory until after the gun had sounded.

Elmhurst vs. Whitewater

ONLY ONE GAME

THE Whitewater, Wisconsin, quintet started the game with plenty of zip and pep. They ran up 8 points on the Pirates in two minutes. It did not take the Elmhurst cagers long to tighten down and strengthen their defense. It was due to the shooting ability of Roberts that the Pirates managed to take the lead at the end of the first half, the score being 19-16.

The second half found the Elmhurst boys fighting harder than ever. Curtis gave a real exhibition of guarding and also played a good defensive game. Roberts carried away scoring honors with 12 points to his credit. The game ended with Whitewater trying hard to catch the smooth working Elmhurst team. The Pirates were on the long end of a 31-26 count.

Elmhurst vs. Milton

2ND GAME

AFTER having a great deal of trouble in getting through the snow on their way to Milton, the Pirates made the most of an opportunity and defeated the Milton team by a score of 29-21. It did not take the Pirates long to get their eyes on the hoop, and they were soon sinking some very long shots. DeLuryea seemed to have a magnet on the basket, making 9 points in the first half. Fritz Krueger dribbled through the entire Milton team on several occasions to score. The Milton team was a menace to the Pirates throughout the game, putting in shots that were far better than average. The Pirates fought to the finish and at the end of the game were still holding the whip hand.

Elmhurst vs. Lisle

2ND GAME

THE winning streak of the Pirates came to an end when they were defeated at the hands of Lisle College. The Lisle team ran up a large score early in the first half, and in this way had the Pirates handicapped. At the beginning of the second half the Blue and White cagers "found themselves" and soon got "hot" on the basket. The exceptionally fast pass work of the Lisle team gave them numerous and many successful shots at the basket. Considering the fact that this was the third game the Pirates had played in four days, they seemed slower than usual. The game ended with the score 34-23 in favor of Lisle.

Elmhurst vs. DeKalb

1ST GAME

THE rangy team of DeKalb College succeeded in beating the Elmhurst Pirates by a large score. It was not for the lack of a good team that the Pirates lost; it happened because they were outclassed. The DeKalb team started the game in a determined way and kept well in the lead throughout the entire fracas. The boys wearing the Blue and White seemed to lack teamwork. The game was very exciting and both teams played clean basketball. The fast pass-work of the DeKalb team was the chief factor which led to the defeat of the Pirates. The final score was 42-19.

1925 FLMS

Elmhurst vs. Chicago Technical College

1ST GAME

THE Elmhurst Pirates did not have much of a task in defeating Chicago Technical College. The game started out fairly fast, but near the end of the first half the visitors began to tire and slow up, due to the pass work of the Elmhurst cagers. The second half gave the Pirates a chance to run up a large score which they proceeded to do. Roberts was the outstanding player on the Elmhurst team. He not only played a good guarding game, but was also high scorer of the evening. Kerber, playing his consistent game, put in some nice shots from back of center. The final score was Elmhurst, 40; Chicago Tech., 24.

Elmhurst vs. Elmhurst Travellers

1ST GAME

UE to the heavy snowfall in their state, the team from the Wisconsin School of Mines was unable to get here to play their scheduled game with the Pirates. Rather than disappoint the crowd, Coach McFarland arranged a game with the local Elmhurst Travellers. The game turned out to be a one-sided affair, the Pirates never being pushed to their limit. Every one of the Blue and White cagers was "on," and most of their attempts at the basket were good. The Pirates took the lead at the start of the game and held it throughout. The game ended with the Pirates running up 44 points to the Travellers' 14.

Elmhurst vs. Mt. Morris

1ST GAME

HE Elmhurst quintet showed its superiority over the Mt. Morris cagers by giving them a 40-22 trouncing. All of the Pirates were "on" and made good most of their attempts at the bucket. Due to Kerber's close guarding the Mountaineers were held to 8 points in the first half while the Pirates netted 28. At the start of the second period the Mt. Morris team showed a little pep and made 5 goals. The Blue and White basket tossers soon got "hot" again and made baskets almost at will. Curtis was high scorer with Hoffman and DeLuryea running him close competition.

Elmhurst vs. The Wisconsin School of Mines

ONE GAME

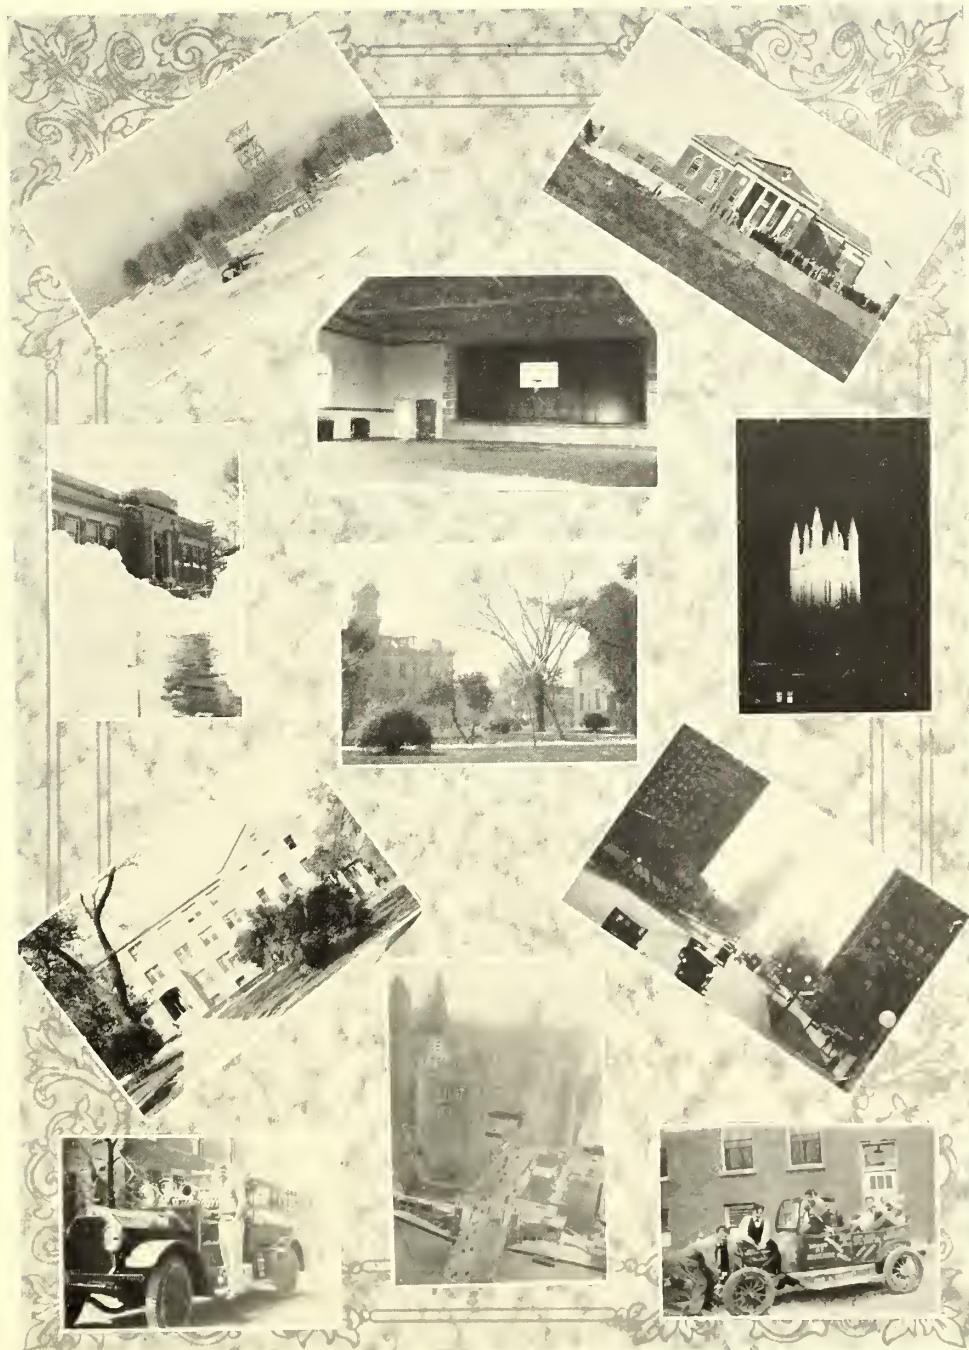

HE game between the Elmhurst Pirates and the Wisconsin School of Mines was a very rough affair. It had all the appearances of a football fray. Blocking, hooking, and in some instances tackling prevailed during the entire game. The Elmhurst cagers had many shots at the hoop, but the rough guarding on the part of the Miners kept many of these shots from being good. "Big" Erwin was an important cog in the Pirates' offense, being high scorer of the game. The Elmhurst quintet was leading 23-13 when the game ended.

Elmhurst vs. Wheaton

1ST GAME

HE Blue and White quintet played one of their best and hardest fought games of the season against their ancient rival, Wheaton. The Pirates won the game on sheer grit. They were outclassed by the fast Wheaton team in the first half due to the absence of Curtis. The first period of the game ended with Elmhurst on the losing side of a 16-5 score.

Curtis started the second half and soon had the Pirates working in tip-top order, their passing, shooting and guarding becoming much better. It was during the last few minutes of the game that the Pirates succeeded in catching and finally passing the Wheaton aggregation. The large crowd that was present was thrilled by the exciting game. Score: Elmhurst, 28; Wheaton, 26.

Elmhurst vs. De Kalb

2ND GAME

THE Elmhurst Pirates lived up to their name in their second meeting of the season against the DeKalb five. Sparing nothing, they went into the game tooth and claw. Both teams seemed determined to win, DeKalb confident that they would again emerge victors, the Pirates fighting mad to get revenge and wipe out the sting of defeat that the DeKalb team had given them earlier in the season. The game was played with extreme caution, neither team under-rating its opponent. The Pirates led by a small margin throughout the game. Ed. Hoffman thrilled the crowd when he showed them how side shots should be made. He was high scorer of this contest. The Pirates held their 4 point lead and won with a 28-24 score.

Elmhurst vs. Wheaton

2ND GAME

IN a hard fought and very exciting game, the Wheaton College quintet was forced to bow, for the second time this season, to the smooth working Elmhurst Five. The first half was played with extreme caution, both teams waiting for a break. The Wheaton aggregation led until a few minutes before the half, when the Pirates tied the score, 11-11. The Wheaton team started the second half with blood in their eye. They soon rolled up 19 points to the Pirates' 12. "Big" Erwin was then put into the game and soon started to make things go. It was only in the last few minutes of the game that the Pirates were able to forge ahead. The final score gave the Pirates a one point lead over their opponents, 24-23.

Elmhurst vs. Aurora

2ND GAME

THE Elmhurst Pirates had their hands full in their game with Aurora. Although the Blue and White cagers won by the score of 42-30 they were by no means playing an easy team. The first half was played on even terms, neither team getting any breaks. The half ended with Aurora leading 18-15. In the second period "Big" Erwin made numerous follow-up shots which put the Pirates ahead. F. Cookson made the most spectacular shots of the evening with his one hand specials. The pass-work of the Elmhurst team was very good, as was their shooting. They were never pressed to their limit during the entire game.

Elmhurst vs. A. C. P. E.

ONLY ONE GAME

PLAYING their last and best game of the season, the Elmhurst cagers came through to a brilliant victory. The game started with a bang, and both teams kept up this fast pace throughout the entire game. The score was nip and tuck and the half ended 13-12, favor A. C. P. E. At the beginning of the second half the Pirates snapped out of their coma and started to play real basketball. During the last ten minutes of the game the Pirates ran up a score which their opponents were unable to equal. The final score was 34-19 with the Pirates on the long end of it. This victory gave the Elmhurst boys a clean record at home. They did not lose a game on their own floor. Anyone of the large crowd who saw this game would say that the Pirates finished a very successful season in a very interesting way.

The 1929 Tennis Team

C. Beehler (Capt.), A. Schlundt, E. Hoffman, W. Hille, O. Kugler.

The 1928 Season

THE Tennis Team was composed of veterans and enjoyed a very successful season. Spurred on by some excellent coaching by Coach Rosenbaum the team put forth extra efforts to win every game. The fact that every man is back again this year gives us hopes of a still better season this spring. This team has done much to demonstrate a real sportsmanlike attitude in athletics.

Elmhurst Track Team 1929

THE 1929 track season was opened with an Inter-class meet when 35 men turned out for the various events. From all indications the team will be well balanced and represented in each event. The squad has eight former prep-school stars, who will be a great help to the Elmhurst squad in its coming competition. This year's schedule will give the team a chance to compete against some of the best colleges in Illinois. Seven meets are scheduled besides the National one to be held at Chicago University. We are confident that the track team is capable of making as good a record as the other Elmhurst athletic teams have set up during the current year.

1929 Track Schedule

APRIL 5—Inter-class meet.

APRIL 20—Elmhurst College in dual practice meet with North Central College (at Naperville).

APRIL 26—Elmhurst College in dual meet with Lake Forest College (at Lake Forest).

Top Row—Winter (Mgr.), Kerber, Klemme, Peters, Nolte, Most, Ebeling, Davis, Cookson, Smotherman.

Elmhurst Baseball Team 1929

BECAUSE of a much larger athletic program this year than in former years, in the line of track and basketball, it was at first decided that we would not have a baseball team. While the track team was working diligently, a few requests were made for a baseball team. As a result a call was made for all baseball enthusiasts to meet on Tuesday, April 16. About twenty men responded to the call which was a large enough number to warrant the organization of a team. Practice began immediately and games were scheduled. Since there was a delay in the organizing of the team, it was decided that the schedule would be limited to four or five games.

This baseball season, no doubt, will be a successful one. The team is under the direction of Ralph Curtis, a very capable athlete. Several baseball veterans of former years are again on the team and will be a great help to the team this year. We are quite confident that the baseball team will uphold the good record which the other Elmhurst athletic teams have set so far this year.

The Glee Club

SAM SCHMIECHEN ..... President

LOUIS A. PIEPER ..... Business Manager

REINHARDT SCHROEDEL ..... Treasurer

THE GLEE CLUB made a very fine record for Elmhurst College during the 1928 concert season. A trip as far south as Kentucky in April produced good results and the post-season tour to the Atlantic Coast, covering 3,000 miles, surpassed any heretofore undertaken. Buffalo was so well impressed that the services of the Club were requested for the Reformation Day program on October 27th. On the same trip a program was also given at Rochester, New York.

The Elmhurst College Glee Club is the only Glee Club in the world that has a regular contract with a radio station. Every month it sings at station WLS, giving a new program at each appearance. Music critics of the Chicago daily papers praise especially the chorals that are sung and give high comment on the English sea chanties.

John C. Minnema, Dean of the School of Music, is conductor of this organization. His wide experience with similar organizations and his masterful directing are largely responsible for the success of the Club.

Forty members compose the Glee Club: Not all members participate in long tours, since some are retained as substitutes for emergencies. Rehearsals are held daily and sometimes more often when concerts are close at hand. Every member receives one vocal lesson per week. Bozo Oumiross, internationally known baritone, is the vocal instructor. Though not present at concerts, the work of the master artist is very evident.

The brilliant and excellent playing of our accompanist, Waldemar Hille, also soloist, has won much repute. The vocal soloist, Glenn Most, charms the audience with his rich baritone voice. The repertoire of the Glee Club is of a highly classical nature, consisting of both sacred and secular selections such as Latin High Masses, chorals in English and German, English sea chanties, and folk songs. The great part of the program is sung a capella.

A tour is now being planned to touch some of the leading cities of Wisconsin, guaranteeing the continuation of an active concert season. The post-season tour will probably take the Club west. It promises to be just as interesting and eventful as the one of last year; a fitting close to a busy season.

1920 ELMIS

The Band

OUR Band this year is not as large in numbers as last year. The Band was organized last year under the direction of John Minnema, Dean of the School of Music, with about eighty members. The number of members is considerably less this year, but we are convinced that size does not determine the ability nor the efficiency of the Band. An "elimination contest" was held to reduce the size and only the most efficient were able to survive. As a result, only the most competent and most interested members remained.

Only the best grades of music have been studied and included in their various entertainments. Our Band has played the same high grade music which professional bands have included in their repertoire.

This organization has many duties and many opportunities to show its ability. It has acquitted itself especially well during the football and basketball seasons this year. At a number of the games there were other bands present also and it was always the determination of our Band to make a "touchdown" as well as the football team.

Another feature of band activity is the open-air concerts which are given on the campus during the spring, on Sunday afternoons or on some beautiful evening. The Band also assists the city of Elmhurst in making its parades on Memorial Day and on other notable occasions a success.

The heavily shaded areas indicate buildings now completed; diagonal shadings indicate future buildings, while dotted lines show the outlines of possible future additions to the Library and South Hall.

As the proposed plan shows, provision has been made for a woman's quadrangle. Elmhurst is a man's school at the present time but in planning the future development of the school, it has been thought advisable to provide for co-education, should the Board adopt the policy.

Where the elms in stately glory spreading branches raise,
 Student days will soon be o-ver for our happy throng,
 When life's closing days draw near'er, sad the heart may be,

There our cherished Al-ma Ma-ter hears our song of praise:
 Still will hold thy mem'ry pre-cious, Ev-er dear and strong.
 Still shall dreams of youth and glo-ry sing-er long o'er thee.

REFRAIN

Musical score for the Refrain section. The score consists of two staves. The top staff is in treble clef, 6/4 time, and the bottom staff is in bass clef, 2/4 time. The vocal line starts with eighth-note chords followed by eighth-note patterns. The lyrics "School we love, Elmhurst, live for aye, God shed thy graces on thee!" are written below the notes. The dynamic instruction "cresc." is placed above the bass staff, and "ff" (fortissimo) is placed above the treble staff. The vocal line ends with a single eighth note.

"Printing that Serves"

We Solicit Your Every Printing Requirement

OUR twenty-six years experience in serving a critical and exacting clientele for printing of every description has resulted in the up-building of a modern printing establishment capable of giving you prompt and intelligent service—may we have the privilege of adding your name to our customers ledger?

THINK THIS OVER

When buying printing what do you consider, quality or price? Or do you look for the combination of both?

THIS ANNUAL

with many others was

PRINTED in the HOUSE of SEVERINGHAUS

Because: Our reputation for high grade work is well known and we are fully equipped to do all of your printing.

Design in printing is the element which combines imagination, taste and skill to produce a definite result. That is what we are giving to every customer and we are ready to do the same for you on all your printing.

Every department properly equipped with modern improvements and machinery is the secret of perfect production. Up-to-date annuals are "planned." The composition is uniform in design, the halftone pictures are clearly produced and the ads are displayed to attract attention.

Colleges, Manufacturers, Merchants and Societies, wanting high grade publications, books or catalogs should consult our service department.
